VRWC ROAD RACES, ALBERT PARK SUNDAY 10 JANUARY 2010

We were very pleased to see 61 walkers in action in what turned out to be a very hot and sunny Melbourne Sunday morning. There were lots of big performances, ably led by our 20km walkers. Tamara Attard and Caitlin Brunton had walked their first 20km events at Fawkner Park in November and their second outings showed considerable improvement. Tamara's time of 2:00:49 was nearly 6 minutes faster than previously done and Caitlin improved by just over 8 minutes for her time of 2:13:44. Not to be outdone, Heather Carr produced a new Victorian W60 15km record of 1:32:52.

Thanks to Terry Swan for his usual collection of top photos which he has uploaded to <http://www.vrwc.org.au/coppermine>. I have used some of his photos as well as some of mine for this report.

2.	O'Neill, Karyn	1:12:55	1:50:16

Tamara Attard, Heather Carr, Caitlin Brunton and Karyn O'Neill – successfully attacking the long distances in the heat

The 10km event was a beauty with lots of our young walkers contesting this classic distance for the first time. Rhydian Cowley led from the front with a 5 sec PB time of 44:41. Others to do PBs were Lewis Clark – a 7 min PB of 52:03, Emily Payne – a 2 min PB of 1:01:53 and Georgia Gatens – a 4 min PB of 1:17:05. Michael O'Mahony, Filip Cosic, Bianca Attard, Lucas Taylor and Aaron Tam all walked their first ever 10km events and all competed strongly. And a special farewell to Anand Thillaisundaram who soon travels back to Scotland to finish his studies. Anand – we look forward to seeing you continue your walking in the UK and will see you in 18 months when you return.

A.V. SHIELD COMPETITION, SATURDAY 9 JANUARY 2010

Our Victorian competition resumed last weekend with Athletics Victoria competitions at our three country venues on Saturday 9th January. It must have been hot at all venues as it was pretty hot in Melbourne!

AV Shield Round 10, Ballarat Region, Llanberris Reserve, Ballarat

Kelly Ruddick did her usual excellent walk at Ballarat with 9:02.44 while Andrew Blood also showed good form with 10:22. Kelly then packed her bags and is now in Canberra for this week doing some training with our elite walkers. This is great news.

A FOLLOWUP FROM LAST WEEK'S ARTICLE ON T. E. HAMMOND

Following on from last week's article on T. E. Hammond, David Armstrong has forwarded the following link to me - some fantastic video clips from the 1926 London to Brighton classic: <http://www.britishpathe.com/record.php?id=14763>

LATEST UPDATE ON THE AUSTRALIAN 20KM CHAMPIONSHIPS IN HOBART

AA has now updated its website for the National roadwalking championships in Hobart.

See http://www.athletics.com.au/competition/events/australian_20k_race_walk_iaaf

Entry procedures are also now available online.

See http://www.clubsonline.com.au/site/index.cfm?fuseaction=display_main&OrgID=887

All those interested in racing in any of the following should now complete their entries as soon as practicable

- Australian 20km championships for men and women
- Australia U23 vs New Zealand 20km Match Race
- Australian U20 10km World Cup Trial for men and women.

Entries close on 1st February (3 weeks time). Selections in the U23 Australian U23 team for the match against New Zealand will be announced by A.A. Immediately after entries close.

Note that a final decision has still not yet been agreed as to the timetable (whether the races will be on the Saturday evening or the Sunday morning) but AA expects to be able to announce this by 15th January (1 week time).

VRWC ANNOUNCEMENT - 3000M HANDICAP WALK CONFIRMED FOR SATURDAY 30 JANUARY 2010

Discussions with the Victorian Athletic League have now been completed and VRWC is very excited to announce that a 3000m handicap racewalk will be held in conjunction with the V.A.L. meet at St Albans (Melbourne) on Saturday 30 February 2010.

See <http://www.vrwc.org.au/VAL-3000m.pdf> for full details of the event as well as an entry form. Monetary prizes of $200, $100 and $50 are to be awarded to the first 3 walkers in the handicap event. I forgot to mention on the entry form that entries should be made payable to V.R.W.C.

This is an exciting venture for us and gives us a chance to showcase our sport in front of a new audience.

TALKING WEATHER

Everyone in Australia has no doubt been following news of the record cold weather in Europe. Spare a thought for two of our Belgian walking friends Rudy Schoors and Caroline Mestdagh who emailed me with some photos of their 33km training walk last weekend.

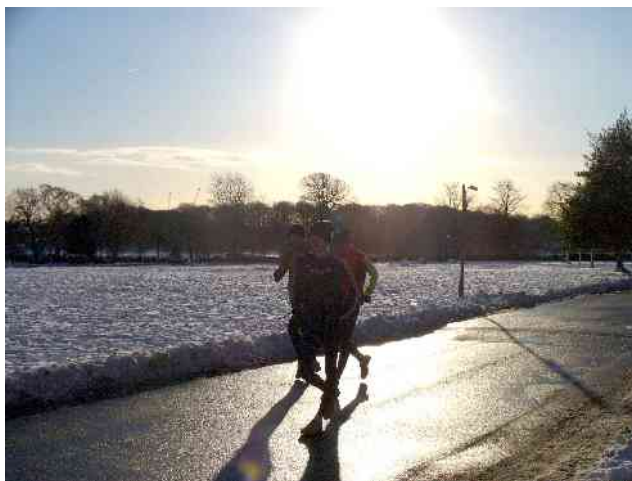

Today we walked 33km in temperatures of -5°C and winter conditions. It's really winter fun at this time at our place. It's very nice to walk in these conditions apart from the slippery moments on the roads. Last week and the week before we had the same conditions.

Rudy and Caroline get their weekend walking in regardless of the snow

And what of the English walkers training at Leeds University. Carnegie Director of Race Walking Andi Drake explained

We've had unusually cold weather and lying snow, which has challenged training a little here. We have a clear 750 m loop on campus and they're digging the track out on Thursday, so we're unaffected in the most part – the ground staff have helped us create one of the few tarmac surfaces in Yorkshire free from snow! What a winter though to choose not to come over to the AIS. We have a different season, with the European Champs to include and the group and programme needs to be in here. It's working very nicely and there's definitely been a big training camp effect for all involved, which justifies staying put. That said this time next year it is my plan to be back with the guys + Johanna.

Brendan Boyce (IRL), Tom Bosworth and Alex Wright train at Leeds University – using a path cleared of snow

And finally to Swedish walkers Ato Ibáñez and Mari Olssen who left Sweden in temperatures around -30°C and arrived at the AIS in Canberra on Tuesday afternoon in temperatures around 40°C – a differential of 70°C!

Swedish walkers Ato Ibáñez and Mari Olssen contermplate life in the hot zone

I left Melbourne on Monday, leaving behind a forecast top temperature of 43°C. Arriving in Canberra in the late afternoon, it was 38°C, had been the day before and was forecast again for Tuesday and again on Wednesday. I will be there for the next 3 weeks helping with the large group of walkers who will converge on the AIS for the summer. Training is already in full swing with Ato and Mari joining 21 of our best walkers. Those training in Canberra at the moment include AIS walkers Jared Tallent, Chris Erickson, Claire Tallent and Kellie Wapshott along with Ian Rayson, Brendon Reading, Sean Fitzsimons, Dane Bird-Smith, Derek Mulhearn, Michael Reading, Jillian Hosking, Jess Rothwell, Kelly Ruddick, Megan Szirom, Nicole Fagan, Bekki Lee, Jess Heazlewood, Regan Lamble, Claire Xian, Beth Alexander and Rachel Tallent. Rhydian Cowley and Blake Steele will join us next week. The only big names currently missing are Nathan Deakes, Luke Adams and Adam Rutter who are all at Threadbo doing an altitude training block. What a collection of talent (and Tallents!)

I captured a few shots as the group headed off for a road session early this morning (Wednesday)

Dane, Claire, Sean, Ato, Derek, Jillian, Brendon, Nicole, Regan and Bekki set off on their morning training session

And again – Brendon, Derek, Jillian, Regan, Ato, Bekki, Nicole, Sean, Dane, Claire, Kelly, Ian and Chris

For the record, Chris did 25km, Ian and Brendon did 20km and the rest did a 14km loop. This followed on from a road session on Monday morning and a track session on Monday afternoon, a road session on Tuesday morning and a weights and conditioning session on Tuesday afternoon. It is indeed a case of making the most of your time in such a highly charged training atmosphere.
